ADDENDUM TO PROOF OF CLAIM

1. Creditor and one or more Debtors entered into written and/or verbal cattle feeding agreements (the “Agreements”). The term “Debtors,” as used herein, refers to McClain Feedyard, Inc., McClain Farms, Inc., and 7M Feeders, Inc. Considering the closely held nature of the Debtors, all owned and operated by Brian McClain and the fraudulent nature of the conduct by McClain, this Proof of Claim is filed in each of the Debtor’s bankruptcy proceedings to ensure that the proper Debtor is responsible for the claim.

2. Under the Agreements, Debtor would act as a dealer and procure cattle on behalf of Creditor and Creditor would pay Debtor for the cattle. Debtor would then place the cattle, owned by Creditor, in Debtor’s feedyard for care and feeding for a period of several months. Once the cattle reached a certain weight, Debtor, acting as a dealer and on behalf of Creditor, would sell the cattle on Creditor’s behalf to a feedyard. Debtor would remit the purchase price of the cattle to Creditor and pay Creditor the agreed upon portion of the profit from the sale of cattle. This Proof of Claim represents the amounts owed to Creditor for either (1) cattle owned by Creditor that should have either been on hand at Debtor’s facility as of the April 28, 2023 (the “Petition Date”), but were not, or (2) the amounts due to Creditor for the sale of the cattle without the remittance of the sales proceeds (or proceeds that were paid with checks that were later dishonored).

3. Creditor is owed $639,861.35, representing the purchase price for the cattle paid for by Creditor. The supporting documentation relating to the cattle purchases made by Creditor is attached to this Proof of Claim. These documents may include invoices for the purchase of cattle, the projected close out, the close out reflecting the sales price of the cattle, the cost and the profit, and proof of payment (including banking documents documenting Creditor’s payments made to Debtors). At all times, Creditor’s cattle were branded to identify Creditor’s ownership.

4. In April 2023, Creditor became aware of Debtors’ and Brian McClain’s fraudulent acts which included the disappearance of cattle and the inability of the Debtors to account for many thousands of cattle and millions of dollars in cattle proceeds. Creditor’s claims arise out of these acts. Pursuant to these claims and the Agreements executed between Creditor and Debtor, Creditor is entitled to recover the amount owed, plus damages and fees resulting from the collection as allowed under applicable law. It is believed that Debtor or others acting on his behalf sold Creditor’s branded cattle subject to the security interest and improperly retained the proceeds belonging to Creditor.

5. As of the Petition Date, the Debtor was liable to Creditor for all obligations in accordance with the Agreements between the parties and other related claims as allowed under applicable law. Creditor does not waive, and expressly reserves, all rights and remedies at law or in equity that it has or may have against the Debtors and/or any other person or entity, including any claims it may have under the Dealer Trust Act, 7 U.S.C. § 217b. Creditor reserves the right to amend and supplement this Proof of Claim for any purpose.
